

Ramadan Plan A: One Juz a Day

Name: _____

Day 1 date: _____

Read 4 pages after each prayer: 20 pages, one juz a day. The Read today column is for a 30-day month. In a 29-day month, read 5 pages after Fajr instead of 4 (about 21 pages a day) and use the page you write each night to stay on track. Use one copy of the Quran all month.

Missed a day? Read 1 extra page after each prayer for 4 days. That makes up the 20 pages.

Ramadan Plan B: Half a Juz a Day

Name: _____

Day 1 date: _____

Read 2 pages after each prayer. That is 10 pages a day, half a juz, and 15 juz by Eid in a 30-day month. If 10 pages is too much, pick a number you can keep each day, even 1 page after each prayer.

A small amount read well is better than a big amount read fast.

My Ramadan Quran Month

My name: _____

My helper (parent or teacher): _____

My new short surah: _____

Pick the goal for your level. The last goal is for everyone. Colour one star each day you do your goal. Ramadan has 29 or 30 days, so the last star is for a 30-day month.

☐ Kids learning the Qaida: one lesson page a day, plus listening to one short surah.

☐ Kids who read slowly: one page of the Quran after Maghrib with a parent.

☐ Kids who read well: half a page after each prayer, or one juz in the whole month.

☐ All kids: learn one new short surah by heart in the month.
